The Year of St. Paul June, 2008—June, 2009

‘The Apostle of the Gentiles, who dedicated himself to the spreading of the good news to all peoples, spent himself for the unity and harmony of all Christians. May he guide us and protect us in this bimillenary celebration, helping us to advance in the humble and sincere search for the full unity of all the members of the mystical Body of Christ.’
Pope Benedict XVI

CD Series on Themes from Paul

Great Themes of Paul – Life as Participation, Richard Rohr, O.F.M.

St. Anthony Messenger Press, 1-800-488-0488, (www.AmericanCatholic.org)

In this 11-CD set, Rohr presents Paul's all-embracing vision and invites us to enter into the mystery of Christ and be transformed by applying up-to-date theories of our universe and integrating them with Paul's revolutionary thinking about sin, saints and spirituality. Richard Rohr is a Franciscan priest and founder of the Center for Action and Contemplation in Albuquerque, NM.

Books for Individual Reading

Jesus and Paul - Parallel Lives, Jerome Murphy-O'Connor, O.P.
Liturgical Press, 2007 (www.litpress.org)

The author discusses the births, early years, family, education, refugee status, social class, economic position, political circumstances, cultural influences, conversion experiences and details surrounding their deaths.

Paul, Least of the Apostles - The Story of the Most Unlikely Witness to Christ, Alain Decaux
Pauline Books and Media, 2003 (www.pauline.org)

The author presents Paul as a man of exceptional passion and conviction, courage and faith, yet one branded by human contradictions, self-doubt, and personal weakness.

Book Series for Individual Reading

Paul's Social Network: Brothers and Sisters in Christ, edited by Bruce Malina, STD
Liturgical Press 2007 (www.litpress.com)

Human beings are embedded in a set of social relations. A social network is one way of conceiving that set of relations in terms of a number of persons connected to one another by varying degrees of relatedness. In the early Jesus-group documents featuring Paul and coworkers, it takes little effort to envision the apostle's collection of friends and friends of friends that is the Pauline network. The persons who constituted that network are the focus of this set of brief books.

- Timothy: Paul's Closest Associate Bruce T. Malina
- Stephen: Paul and the Hellenist Israelites John J. Pilch
